

About the author

Vaibhav, studying in class VA of Sanghamitra School is a budding author who started to write stories in class IV. He has a flair for English and reads a lot of books. His parent's encouragement helped him succeed in writing books which has adventure as its theme. These books reflect the young writers love for adventure and his imagination.

