

SANGHAMITRA SCHOOL

Class VIII student's assembly presentation on October 1st created awareness of Gandhi Jayanthi. It was a wonderful engaging dance drama beautifully enacted by class VIII students. It created awareness of Gandhiji's struggle for Independence.

It started with a quote "Happiness is when you think, what you say and what you do are in harmony".

Students as Indians were dressed in white kurta pajamas and as Britishers in Red shirts, black pants, and black shoes.

The program included

- Introduction of Gandhiji's birth
- Ideology of Truth and Non-Violence
- Non-Cooperation Movement – Swadeshi and Boycott Movement
- Salt Law
- Dandi March
- Gandhiji in jail
- Quit India
- Independence.

Students performance was outstanding. All the dialogues the British accent was very evident. Props supported the actions.

The bhajans Dedi hami azaadi and Raghupathi Raja Ram reverberated in the assembly hall .

A wonderful program that created awareness on the role that Gandhiji played in guiding the nation towards freedom. The approach of Non-violence must be adopted by all the nations and all humans so that we can maintain peace in today's world.

Wonderful program class VIII students and teachers . Truly outstanding !
