

SANGHAMITRA SCHOOL

“One child, one teacher, one pen, and one book can change the whole world”

“Happiest Teacher's Day to all the wonderful, friendly, charismatic, dedicated, encouraging, fabulous, generous, inspiring, and simply the best teachers of the whole world. Though the celebration was postponed due to Periodic Test 2, celebrations can be done at any time, and there is no specific time to be thankful and express our profound gratitude to our tender-hearted teachers.”

With these opening lines class X anchors Manvi, Aditya Pranav and Likith welcomed the audience to the Teachers Day celebration which was held on September 28th, 2024 in the school auditorium.

The program started with the lighting of the lamp followed by Class X Gayathri singing a melodious prayer song. Then it was the turn of the class X choir who sang a medley. The medley was a compilation of various songs that reflected school life and made everyone emotional.

The next program included the felicitation of the trash collector Mr Srinivas. Students thanked him for keeping their premises clean and working silently in the background giving them a clean environment.

Then it was the turn of all the class x sections to entertain their teachers. And they did it in style. The programs included dances by class X A, B, C,D,E and interspersed where skits. Some of the skits presented were. Coffee with Shruthi, Sanghamitra Idol, Sanghamitras got Talent, a spoof on the Parent Teacher Meeting, Nippulanti Nijam and Musical Chairs for the teachers.

The creativity, hard work and thoughtful planning were truly outstanding and the event was a stupendous success. Every aspect of the program from the welcome to the heartfelt performances reflected the genuine respect and appreciation for their teachers. It was not only a beautifully organized program but it was also a memorable one for the teachers.

The teachers appreciated every single effort made by the students and are proud to have such talented, dedicated, and thoughtful students. It was a showcase of leadership teamwork, and creativity.

Thank you, children, for making Teachers day unforgettable and for organizing such an extraordinary event.
